Two New Employees Join GWWO, Inc./Architects

---

Baltimore, MD (February 6) – GWWO, Inc./Architects welcomes two new employees, Gretchen Wagner, AIA, LEED AP BD+C and Brian Weisgerber.

Gretchen Wagner, AIA, LEED AP BD+C, earned a Bachelor of Architecture from Miami University in Ohio and a Masters of Architecture from the University of Maryland, College Park. Gretchen's prior project experience includes work on K-12 schools while with Grimm + Parker Architects in Calverton, Maryland. She is a registered architect in the state of Maryland.

Brian Weisgerber earned an Associate of Arts in Computer Aided Design from Carroll Community College. Prior to joining GWWO, Brian worked at Colimore Architects in Baltimore. Brian brings his vast design experience that includes work on a variety of project types including systemic renovations, additions, and interior renovations to the firm.

GWWO, Inc./Architects is a full service architectural firm that specializes in the planning and design of cultural and educational facilities, with an emphasis on quality design that is both inspirational and evocative. Current projects include a new Interpretive Center for Morven Museum & Garden in Princeton, NJ; a STEM Building at the Community College of Baltimore County Catonsville; the new Cade Museum for Creativity + Invention in Gainesville, FL; and the new Severna Park High School in Severna Park, MD.
