GWWO Welcomes Brian Minnich & Chelsea Thomas

Baltimore, MD (June 22) – GWWO, Inc./Architects welcomes two new architects, Brian Minnich and Chelsea Thomas, to the firm.

Brian Minnich, AIA, LEED AP BD+C, joins the GWWO team with 17 years of experience that spans the northwest and mid-Atlantic regions of the United States. Brian received his Bachelor of Architecture and Bachelor of Science in Environmental Design degrees from North Dakota State University. Though he has experience in a wide range of project types, his career has focused heavily on the design of K-12 education environments. He has served as the Co-Chair of the National K-12 Education Subcommittee for the AIA Committee on Architecture for Education since 2011 and is a member of the North Dakota State University Architecture Alumni Advisory Board.

Chelsea Thomas, AIA, LEED AP, joins our firm with over ten years of experience in the profession and has a broad range of experience in both commercial and residential projects. Chelsea received her Bachelor of Science in Architecture from the University of Maryland College Park. As a member of AIA Baltimore, she currently serves as the chairperson for the “Doors Open Baltimore” planning committee.

GWWO, Inc./Architects is a full service architectural firm that specializes in the planning and design of cultural and educational facilities, with emphasis on quality design that is both inspirational and evocative. Current projects include a new Interpretive Center for Morven Museum & Garden in Princeton, NJ; a STEM Building at the Community College of Baltimore County Catonsville; the new Cade Museum for Creativity + Invention in Gainesville, FL; and the new Severna Park High School in Severna Park, MD. The firm is celebrating its 25th Anniversary in 2015.
