Kaitlin Murphy Rejoins GWWO, Inc./Architects

Baltimore, MD (February 28) – GWWO, Inc./Architects welcomes back Kaitlin Murphy as the firm’s new Business Development Manager.

In this new role, Kaitlin, in collaboration with the firm’s principals, will build the firm’s business development strategy from the ground up by using the firm’s existing strong portfolio, reputation and relationships to increase awareness among potential clients. Through the strategic implementation of those methods, Kaitlin will be charged with growing the firm’s presence in our target markets, both regionally and nationally.

Kaitlin joined GWWO in 2009 as Office Administrator and Marketing Assistant, moving to Marketing Coordinator in 2011, and was then promoted to Marketing Manager in 2013. Between her time at GWWO, she was the Corporate Marketing Specialist at Perkins+Will in New York. Kaitlin is a member of the Membership Committee for SMPS Maryland. She holds a Bachelor of Arts in Communications from Loyola University Maryland.

GWWO, Inc./Architects is a full service architectural firm that specializes in the planning and design of interpretive and educational facilities, with an emphasis on quality design that is both inspirational and evocative. Current projects include a new Interpretive Center for Morven Museum & Garden in Princeton, NJ; a STEM Building at the Community College of Baltimore County Catonsville; the new Cade Museum for Creativity + Invention in Gainesville, FL; and the new Severna Park High School in Severna Park, MD.
