GWWO Welcomes New Employee

Baltimore, MD (January 23) – GWWO, Inc./Architects welcomes David Ritter to the firm.

David Ritter joins the firm's architectural staff with over seven years of experience in the AEC industry. David graduated from Temple University with a dual Bachelor's degree in Architecture and Architectural Preservation. Since then, he has gained valuable experience in the space planning and design of many building types including K-12, higher education, residential, commercial, retail, and health care facilities. He is also well-versed in historic preservations and adaptive reuse. A resident of York, PA, David is a member of AIA Pennsylvania as well as AIA Central Pennsylvania.

GWWO, Inc./Architects is a full service architectural firm that specializes in the planning and design of cultural and educational facilities, with emphasis on responsible design that is inspirational, evocative and progressive. Current projects include the new Pikes Peak Summit Complex in Colorado Springs, CO; the Health Careers Technology Building at the Community College of Baltimore County Essex; the new Cade Museum for Creativity + Invention in Gainesville, FL; and the new Severna Park High School in Severna Park, MD.
